The COVID-19 Edition

For many years it was the Printing Impressions 500. Then it became the 400. Due to the pandemic, our 37th annual ranking of the largest printers in the U.S. and Canada is now the Printing Impressions 350.

Presenting the 2020 Printing Impressions 350

The listings include company name and the location of the headquarters; current and previous year's rankings; most recent and previous fiscal year sales figures; percentage change in annual sales; primary product specialties; principal officer(s); number of employees and manufacturing plants; as well as the firm's total range of in-house sheetfed and webfed digital and conventional printing process capabilities.

The financial information shown for the Printing Impressions 350 rankings was self-reported by publicly-held, privately-held, and employee-owned firms, and we instructed companies to not provide projected/estimated sales figures for fiscal years still in progress. As a result, printers shown on this list were most often reporting 2019 calendar year revenues as their most recent annual sales figures.

Despite our repeated attempts, various privately-held companies would not divulge their annual revenue figures, so they are not on our list. However, we did include Taylor Corp. and the CJK Group — due to their industry size and importance — using estimated sales information based on Dun & Bradstreet (D&B) reports.

In addition, a few other very large firms that are ranked would not, or could not, break down their annual sales by the various print market specialties that we track (so they might not appear on some of our Top 5 market segment leaders charts).

Individual printing companies that are part of larger graphic arts conglomerates are not listed separately. In essence, to do so would be to show sales figures twice. Instead, only the sales of the entire umbrella corporation are included.

Not Listed in Our 2020 Rankings?

If your company should have appeared on the 2020 Printing Impressions 350 but did not, let us know for next year's list. Write to: Printing Impressions, Attn: Editor-in-Chief, 1500 Spring Garden St., Ste. 1200, Philadelphia, PA 19130, or email pi350@napco.com, and we'll add your firm to our database to be contacted for inclusion on next year's list.
